Future of Delivery with EVs

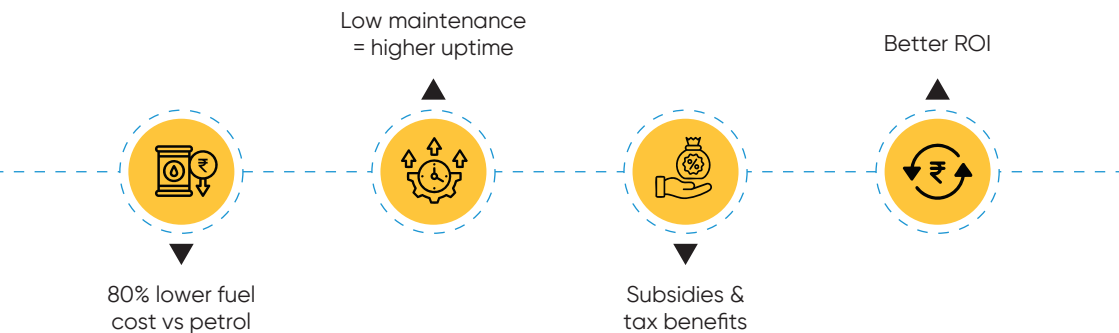

India is going electric – & delivery is leading the charge.. 2-wheelers are booming. Thanks to government policies, lower running costs, and the push for greener cities. Over 1.2 million EV 2Ws were sold in FY2025 – and they're becoming the go-to for last-mile delivery.

Last-Mile Delivery is Going Green

India's last-mile delivery market is growing fast – from $6.24B today to an expected $15.05B by 2030. With e-commerce & quick commerce booming, companies are switching to 100% EV fleets to cut costs and emissions.
